AROUND THE CHASE…

- A number of solicitors have been noted recently going door to door. No doubt these solicitors are actually soliciting for the cause they represent. However, in other communities, it has happened that folks masquerading as solicitors for worthwhile causes are in fact lead men/women scouting out upscale homes to establish patterns for possible future break-ins. Boulder Drive is a private drive. It is posted as such. One reason for that posting is so that we can exclude solicitors; we understand that they are trespassing when they enter the private drive. Guests are of course always welcome; if, however, a solicitor tells you that he was given “permission” by a resident to solicit, that is not possible. It is not the province of any resident to do so. Good option is simply to not interact with strangers. If anyone makes you feel uncomfortable, call 911. Generally, of course, keep your eyes open. Everyone gets out more in the summer—good guys as well as bad guys. Let’s keep the good guys on top here at Huron Chase!

- Spring garage parties were better attended than ever! A total of 70 people (some duplication) came to the parties. These functions serve as a valuable way to know neighbors. A neighborhood where folks know each other and work together in a cooperative manner, is not only a very pleasant neighborhood but also a stable and secure one, as well! Many thanks to all who came.

- The Board continues to discuss the report of the landscaping committee. Individual requests are handled by PASCO and the Board. If you have questions about a possible project, be it a landscaping or other one, call Jeff Dobbs at PASCO. The general strategy is to ask before taking action: the Board rewards behavior it wishes to encourage.
