Study Questions

Lecture 18 Preferential Trading Arrangements

Part 1: Multiple Choice

Select the best answer of those given.

- 1. Which of the following is not a preferential trading arrangement?
 - a. EU
 - b. NAFTA
 - c. OECD
 - d. GSP
 - e. Anti-dumping duty
- 2. Which of the following explains why trade diversion is undesirable for an importing country that lowers its tariff against a partner in a free trade area?
 - a. The country imports from the partner at higher cost than it previously imported from some other country.
 - b. Domestic producers suffer a loss of income.
 - c. Workers are laid off as producers shift production into the partner country.
 - d. Consumers pay a higher price for the good imported from the partner.
 - e. All of the above.
- 3. When a country eliminates its tariff against a partner country, keeping the tariff positive against other countries, the effect of that change alone is that the partner country as a whole
 - a. Must gain.
 - b. May either gain or lose.
 - c. Will neither gain nor lose.
 - d. Must lose.
 - e. None of the above; it depends on whether there is trade creation or trade diversion.

- 4. Because wages in Mexico before the NAFTA were only a small fraction (perhaps 1/10) of wages in the U.S., we should infer that
 - a. Prior to NAFTA, Mexican workers were paid far below their productivity.
 - b. After NAFTA, most U.S. firms would be unable to compete with imports from Mexico.
 - c. After NAFTA, most U.S. firms would close their U.S. plants and move to Mexico.
 - d. Prior to NAFTA, since U.S. tariffs against Mexico were small, the productivity of Mexican workers must also have been only a small fraction of that in the U.S.
 - e. After NAFTA, forcing Mexican workers to compete with more productive U.S. workers would drive their wages even lower.
- 5. Why did NAFTA not have a significant effect on US unemployment?
 - a. No jobs were lost in the US due to NAFTA.
 - b. The number of workers who lost jobs due to NAFTA was a tiny fraction of normal US labor turnover.
 - c. Workers who lost jobs in the US were able to move to Mexico.
 - d. The US reneged on its NAFTA promise to lower tariffs on imports from Mexico.
 - e. Mexican companies built factories in the US that employed US workers that had been laid off from US factories.
- 6. How has the US share of employment in manufacturing changed before and after NAFTA?
 - a. It rose before NAFTA and fell after.
 - b. It fell before NAFTA and rose after.
 - c. It rose both before NAFTA and after.
 - d. It fell both before NAFTA and after.
 - e. It was constant over time before NAFTA and fell after.
- 7. Why did the NAFTA not require free trade within North America in energy?
 - a. Because the NAFTA countries did not then produce energy products.
 - b. Because Ross Perot, an oil company executive, would have objected.
 - c. Because that would have violated the rules of the GATT.
 - d. Because Republicans owned the US oil companies.
 - e. Because the oil sector in Mexico at that time was state owned.

8.	Once the USMCA is in place, how much of a car imported into the US from Mexico
	with zero tariff can be imported from China?

- a. None
- b. 10%
- c. 25%
- d. 37.5%
- e. 50%

2.

Part II: Short Answer

Answer in the space provided.

1. For each of the types of preferential arrangement named across the top of the following table, indicate with a check mark below it whether it has the properties indicated:

	Free Trade Area	Customs Union	Common Market
Higher tariffs against non-members than against members
Zero tariffs against members
Common external tariff
Free movement of labor among members

Fill in the blanks:
a.	a. During the 2008 Democratic primary campaign, candidates and argued for renegotiating NAFTA.
b.	During the 2016 US presidential campaign, which of the candidates, Trump and/or Clinton, argued for renegotiating NAFTA?

	c.	In th	n the USMCA, autos will be imported from Mexico to the US duty-free only if over 40% of their value was added by workers making over hour
	d.	The	USMCA require	s that members must	inform the others 3 month	ns prior to begi	inning trade nego	tiations with
3.	Circle the appropriate word in the sentence below, and then write an explanation in the space below that.
				An example of
			An RTA is	A violation of Unrelated to	MFN.
4.	Define or explain:
	a	•	Trade creation
	b		Mercosur
	C.	•	Fund for investm	nent in Mexico

- d. Sunset clause
- e. BIT
- f. Standing