VISITOR PASSES

Policy
Visitor passes are issued by the Guard. Issuance is subject to the discretion of the guard, but in general keep in mind that our purpose is to keep out those who wish to use the building as a study hall, but we do not wish to be rude or unduly hassle legitimate visitors. Thus, you should not question too severely people in categories such as the following:

--elderly and middle aged ladies and gentlemen
--family groups that include younger children
--people with cameras and no study supplies

Simply ask those people to sign the visitor register and hand them a Visitor Pass; a supply of Visitor Passes is in the desk drawer.

Misuse of Pass
These passes do not serve to give unlimited admission to the Law Library. If it occurs that one has been used to get in, but then the person fails to leave in a timely manner, you can either detain that person on the way out, and/or put the name on a list of people who are not to get Visitor Passes.

Remember: You can ask to see ID of some sort before granting a Visitor Pass if you have reason to believe the person is not being truthful.
