

Not-So-Free Dinner with Your GSI

Tuesday, 4/18, 6 PM, International House Dining Facility

Meet in front of I-House at 5:57

I hereby invite the undergraduates in Econ 100b Section 103 to join me for lunch at “The International House Dining Facility.” The I-House dining facility is one of my standard hangouts — an all you can eat buffet style dinner featuring a variety of international types of cuisine. It is located at the end of Bancroft (address: 2299 Piedmont Ave.).

Please join me for dinner, casual conversation, and economics if you wish. Dinner will be at 6 PM on Tuesday, 4/18. Please meet outside the International House on the front steps no later than 5:57. If you are late, proceed up to the dining facility, which is located on the second floor (not the café). The people at the front desk can help you. The cost of dinner is approximately $7 per person.

Dinner for 100b is a custom in the Berkeley Economics Department that was practiced by Prof. Brad DeLong.
