Depression on College Campuses: Integrating Prevention, Resilience, and Positive Mental Health
Wednesday, March 7, 2012
12:30-1:00 pm  Registration
1:00-1:45  Opening Presentation
U-M Educational Theatre Company
2:00-5:00  Workshops
1.  Building Strength and Resilience in College Students, Jane Gillham, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Swarthmore College; Co-Director, WSSD Positive Psychology Project and Co-Director, The Penn Resiliency Project
2.  Treatment of Bipolar Disorder in the University Student Population, Russ Federman, Ph.D., ABPP, Director, Counseling and Psychological Services, Department of Student Health, University Of Virginia
3.  Cultural and Clinical Concerns of Service Members and Veterans on Campus, Ted Bonar, PsyD, Center for Deployment Psychology, Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences
4.  Dialectical Behavior Therapy for College Students, JoAnn Heap, MSW, ACSW, Department of Psychiatry, University of Michigan
5.  Student Workshop TBA
5:00-6:00  Poster Session and Reception

Thursday, March 8, 2012
8:30-9:00 am  Registration and Continental Breakfast
9:00-10:15  Opening Keynote: The Importance of Gratitude
Robert Emmons, PhD, Professor, University of California Davis
10:30-11:45  Concurrent Sessions
Using Educational Theater to Promote Mental Health Awareness, Callie McKee, Director, U-M Educational Theatre Company, Office of New Student Programs
Resiliency Training for College Students, Jacqueline Pistorello, PhD, Counseling Services, University of Nevada, Reno and Matthew Boone, LCSW, Gannett Health Center, Cornell University
2 MORE TBA
12:00-1:15  Banquet Lunch and Student Mental Health Advocate Award
1:30-2:45  Concurrent Sessions
Addressing the Unique Challenges of Art Students, Joe Behen, PhD, Executive Director of Counseling, Health, & Disability Services School of the Art Institute of Chicago
Transforming Residence Halls into Supportive Communities: A New Approach, J. Greg Merritt, PhD, Senior Associate Director, U-M Residence Life
2 MORE TBA
3:00-4:00  Love is Louder: A Jed Foundation Campaign for College Campuses
Brittany Snow, Actress; Courtney Knowles, Director, Love is Louder