“The poet has been looking at some quiz questions here. To know what he had in mind, I have to find these answers. These answers look like a couple of them are almost the same. If only I could find out how they are different”

1. This building is America’s defense headquarters.
2. This is a small songbird of the finch family that is named after an archipelago of the kingdom of Spain.
3. The 1968 best picture Oscar winner.
4. Radhunath Sikdar was the first one to measure this.
5. Third largest continent in terms of population.
6. This rock gives the Red pyramid in Egypt its characteristic light crimson hue
7. Coleridge wrote, “What is an _______? A dwarfish whole; its body brevity and wit its soul”.
8. This is a primate whose name derives from the Latin for “spirits of the night”.
9. Bayer had this drug’s name as their trademark till the Allies seized and resold the company’s foreign assets after World War I.
10. The American doctrine to contain Communism by financially aiding Greece and Turkey is named after this President.
11. Tropical cyclones in the pacific are called this. It is also a novel by Joseph Conrad.
12. Gilbert N. Lewis, the famous American chemist is credited with coining this term for the smallest unit of radiant energy.
13. He is the first western monk of the Tibetan Buddhist tradition and is a professor of Indo-Tibetian Buddhist studies at Columbia university.
14. The first ever play with a black director on Broadway has this fruit’s name in its title.
15. The boxing great, Jack Dempsey was nicknamed the “Manassa _______”.
16. Rossini wrote an opera about this thieving bird.
17. The unique pattern of blood vessels in this part of the eye is used in biometric identification.
18. Indian monetary unit.
19. Last name of Neo actor.
20. Hepatitis affects this organ of the human body.
21. This is the common term used to refer to the breakdown of order following the collapse of a ruling body.
22. This is the measure of the size or cargo capacity of a ship.