

Herkelrath Farm

1. Herkelrath Farm,
11300 Herkelrath Road

The early roads in Onekama Township were almost sand “trails” leading through the countryside. The Herkelrath Road was often used to travel north in the early days before the West Michigan Pike, which existed in 1916, was developed along the route of M-22. An early farm implement at the Herkelrath farm complements the Centennial Farm sign and house on the farm for which land was purchased in 1893 by John Herkelrath, James F. and Cynthia Herkelrath owned this farm when the Centennial designation was made.
