

Portage Point Resort

4. Portage Point Resort, Portage Point South of Outlet Avenue

Tenting Was Popular in the Early Portage Point Resort

In 1902, the Portage Point Assembly, which was briefly the Sunnyside Assembly, platted as Portage Point Resort the land south of a line extending between Lake Michigan and Portage Lake at approximately the Outlet Avenue Road End. The new subdivision went south to the Channel. The Resort was organized under the acts of the Michigan State Legislature regarding associations to maintain summer resorts.
