The United States of America.

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, David C. Lord, of Washtenaw County, Mi., has, deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Detroit, Michigan, whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said David C. Lord, according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for the last half of the south east quarter of section twenty-nine, in township five south, of Range seven west, in the District of Detroit and Territory of Michigan, containing eighty acres, according to the official plat of the survey of the said Lands, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said David C. Lord.

NOW KNOW YE, That the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have Given and Granted, and, by these presents do give and grant, unto the said David C. Lord, and to his heirs, the said tract above described: To Have and to Hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities and appurtenances, of whatsoever nature thereto belonging, unto the said David C. Lord, and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, John Quincy Adams, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the 24th day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and of the Independence of the United States the 39th.

By the President, J. Q. A.

5. S.
Commissioner of the General Land Office.
