PREFACE

- P1. A working document was developed by a group of the Committee on Best Practices and Professional Standards (ICA/CBPS). The group was established during the meeting of the provisional Section of Professional Standards and Best Practices in Bern, Switzerland, June, 2005.
- P2. Recognition of the importance of information about the archival institutions that have custody of the documents and the services they offer citizens led the group to propose development of a standard for such description in archival information systems. In carrying out the development of an international standard for describing the institutions with archival holdings, the group drew upon models of functional description and analysis currently being applied in archives and records management in Spain, United Kingdom and Italy and completed a first draft document which was discussed, amended, and extended at its meetings in Milan in January 2006 and in Madrid in May 2007.
- P3. The draft circulated to the international archival community for comment. Comments received during this world wide review were taken into account by the Committee on Best Practices and Professional Standards. Then, ICA/CBPS prepared the final English and French versions of ISIAH and sent the standard accompanied by summary of development process and opinions expressed to ICA/PCOM for approval and submission to Executive Board for formal endorsement. The current document is the result of this process.
- P4. ICA/CBPS has also foreseen a five years revision cycle for ISIAH. So, further comments and proposals of amendments and modifications can be sent to ICA/CBPS and will be taken into account during this revision process.

The following are the members of the ICA Committee on Best Practices and Professional Standards who developed the standard and served on the Committee during its 2004-2008 term:

Blanca Desantes Fernandez (Spain), Vice-Chair of ICA/CBPS
Dick Sargent (United Kingdom), 2004-2006
Claire Sibille (France), Co-Secretary of ICA/CBPS
Stefano Vitali (Italy)
Amy Warner (United Kingdom), 2007-

The ICA Committee on Best Practices and Professional Standards (ICA/CBPS) is also composed of:

Marion Beyea (Canada; chair of ICA/CBPS);
Nils Brübach (Germany; PCOM Portfolio Holder for Developing Standards and Best Practice);
Karen Cannell (United States; Lead in Area of Electronic Records and Digitization);
Virginia Castillo Sahun (Andorra);
Rosine Cleyet-Michaud (France; Lead in Evaluation and Appraisal Area);
Howard Davies (United Kingdom);
Vincent Doom (France);
Cassandra Findlay (Australia);
Bärbel Förster (Switzerland);
Michael Fox (United States of America);
Beatriz Franco (Spain);
Padré Lydie Gnessougou Baroan-Dioumency (Cote d'Ivoire) ;
Torbjörn Hörfeldt (Sweden);
Vitor Manoel Marques da Fonseca (Brazil; Vice-Chair of ICA/CBPS);
Markku Leppanen (Finland);
Thomas Mills (United States of America);
John Martinez (United States of America; Co-Secretary of ICA/CBPS);
Catherine Nicholls (Australia; Lead in Area of Preservation);
Per-Gunnar Ottosson (Sweden; Lead in Area of Archival Description);
Victoria Peters (United Kingdom);
Paola Tascini (Italy);
Yolia Tortolero (Mexico);

and (corresponding members):

Eugenio Bustos Ruz (Chili);
Elvira Corbelles Sanjurjo (Cuba);
Adrian Cunningham (Australia);
Leila Estephanio de Moura (Brazil);
Ana Virginia Garcia de Benedictis (Costa Rica);
Marisol Mesa Leon (Cuba);

Miguel Rui Infante (Portugal);

Andras Sipos (Hungary);
Édouard Vasseur (France).

The ICA Committee on Best Practices and Professional Standards (ICA/CBPS) gratefully acknowledges the sponsorship of its plenary meetings by the following institutions:

Archivio di Stato di Milano, Regione Lombardia, Associazione Nazionale Archivistica Italiana, Sezione regionale della Lombardia (Italia)

Ministerio de Cultura. Subdirección General de los Archivos Estatales (España)

Without their substantial contributions, both financial and in facilities and logistics for organizing the meetings, the development of this standard would not have been possible.

1. SCOPE AND PURPOSE

- 1.1 Information about the institution which has custody of archival materials, as described in archival descriptive systems and/or finding aids, is essential for users to access these archival holdings as part of the unique cultural heritage of a country, region or institution.
- 1.2 As stated in the Guidelines for the Preparation and Presentation of Finding Aids developed by the ICA/CDS, in addition to the overview of fonds and collections, guides usually include general information about archival institutions that hold documents and the services they provide. The advent of the Internet and of the World Wide Web makes it increasingly important for users to obtain such information.
- 1.3 With the Internet, users have access to archival systems describing records held by a number of different archival institutions. Connecting records descriptions to relevant information on their custodians, is essential to provide the users with a comprehensive understanding of the archival material described. Moreover, without this information, the users are unable to access the archives.
- 1.4 ISAD(G) provides guidance for the description of fonds and their component parts. ISAAR(CPF) provides guidance to record authority information about the creators of archives. For a consistent archival information system the description of the same entity as creator or as custodian requires different approaches and elements of description. This is the purpose of ISIAH.
- 1.5 This standard provides rules for preparing standardised descriptions of institutions which have custody of archives.
- 1.6 The main purpose of the standard is to facilitate the description of archival institutions whose primary function is to keep archives and make them available to the general public. But other entities such as cultural institutions (libraries, museums), families or individuals may hold archives. This standard or subset of its elements can be applied to entities other than archival institutions.
- 1.7 These descriptions may offer users further contextual information, which is useful to identify and interpret relevant documents. Furthermore, they provide practical guidance on how to identify the archival institutions, how to make contact, what access conditions and restriction apply, and what services are available to them.
- 1.8 Moreover, the possibility of describing archival institutions, as separate entities, may be useful for generating authority lists or directories of archival institutions, which can be directly accessed. It may be useful as well for establishing connections with similar authority lists of libraries and museums and/or developing common directories of cultural heritage institutions at the regional, national and international level.
- 1.9 Recording in a standardised format information about archival institutions, their services and their holdings can also be useful for archivists in order to allow the production of statistics at a regional, national or international level.

- 1.10 In addition, this standard makes provisions for linking information about archival institutions to descriptions of records they hold and their creators. These descriptions should comply with ISAD(G) and ISAAR(CPF). Links to archival materials may be established according to arrangement or classification schemes applied by the archival institution, enabling them to maintain intellectual control over their fonds.

2. RELATED STANDARDS AND GUIDELINES

Note: This list includes the dates of relevant standards as they existed at the time of finalization of the 1st edition of the standard in 2008. Future readers are encouraged to refer to the latest version of each standard.

ISAD(G) - General International Standard Archival Description, 2nd ed., Madrid: International Council on Archives, 2000.

ISAAR(CPF) – International Standard Authority Records for Corporate bodies, Persons, Families, 2nd ed, Vienna : International Council on Archives, 2004.

ISO 21127 – CIDOC – Conceptual Reference Model, Geneva: International Standards Organization, 2006.

3. GLOSSARY OF TERMS AND DEFINITIONS

The following glossary forms an integral part of this standard. The terms are defined in the context of the rules.

Archival description. The creation of an accurate representation of a unit of description and its component parts, if any, by capturing, analyzing, organizing and recording information that serves to identify, manage, locate and explain archival materials and the context and records systems which produced it. This term also describes the products of the process.

Archival institution. An organization or part of, public or private, accessioning, appraising, describing and keeping material and making them accessible to the public. Not restricted to archives.

Authority record. The authorized form of name combined with other information elements that identify and describe the named entity and may also point to other related authority records.

Creator. Any entity (corporate body, family or person) that created, accumulated and/or maintained records in the conduct of personal or corporate activity.

Custody. The responsibility for the care of documents based on their physical possession. Custody does not always include legal ownership or the right to control access to records.

Qualifier. Information added to a descriptive element that assists identification, understanding and/or use of the authority record.

4. STRUCTURE AND USE OF THE STANDARD

- 4.1 This standard determines the type of information that could be included in descriptions of institutions with archival holdings and provides guidance on how such descriptions may be deployed in an archival information system. The content of the information elements included in the descriptions will be determined by the conventions and/or rules that the agency follows. It is recommended that each country should establish and maintain a unique identifier for each archival institution. This should be consistent with the ISIL standard developed by IFLA and any other systems for codifying cultural institutions developed at an international level.
- 4.2 This standard consists of information elements, each of which contains:
- a. the name of the element of description;
 - b. a statement of purpose for the element of description;
 - c. a statement of the rule (or rules) applicable to the element; and
 - d. where applicable, examples illustrating implementation of the rule.
- 4.3 Paragraphs are numbered and are given for citation purposes only. These numbers should not be used to designate elements of description or to prescribe the order or structure of descriptive resources.
- 4.4 The elements of description for institutions with archival holdings are organised into six information areas:
1. Identity Area
(where information is conveyed which uniquely identifies the archival institution being described and which defines standardized access points)
 2. Contact Area
(where information is provided on how to contact the archival institution being described)
 3. Description Area
(where relevant information is conveyed about the history of the archival institution being described, current structure and policy)
 4. Access Area
(where information is given about the access to the archival institution being described: public opening hours, free or restricted access, etc.)
 5. Services Area
(where relevant information is conveyed about the technical services offered by the archival institution being described)
 6. Control Area
(where the description of the archival institution is uniquely identified and information is recorded on how, when and by which agency the description was created and maintained)
- 4.5 This standard also makes revisions in Chapters 6 for linking information about archival institutions to multi-level descriptions compliant with ISAD(G) and descriptions of corporate bodies, families and persons as creators of archival material compliant with ISAAR(CPF). Note that a given description may be linked to as many descriptions of archives and/or authority records as required.

- 4.6 The appendix provides full examples of descriptions of archival institutions compiled in accordance with this standard. See also 4.11.
- 4.7 All the elements covered by these rules are available for use, but the following elements are mandatory:
 - Identifier (element 5.1.1);
 - Authorized form(s) of name (element 5.1.2);
 - Address(es) (element 5.2.1).
- 4.8 The nature of the archival institution being described and the requirements of the particular system or network within which the preparer of a description works will determine which of the optional elements of description are used in a given description of an archival institution, and whether these elements are presented in a narrative and/or a structured format.
- 4.9 When the standard is applied to describe entities other than archival institutions which have the custody of archives, use the appropriate subset of elements. For example, privacy requirements must be considered when the custodian is an individual or a family.
- 4.10 Many of the descriptive elements in a description of an archival institution established in accordance with the present standard will be used as access points. Rules and conventions for standardising access points may be developed nationally or separately for each language. Vocabularies and conventions to be used in creating or selecting the data content for these elements may also be developed nationally or separately for each language.
- 4.11 Examples provided throughout the standard are illustrative and not prescriptive. They illuminate the provisions of the rules to which they are attached, rather than extend those provisions. Do not take the examples, or the form in which they are presented as instructions. To clarify the context, each example is followed by an indication in italic of the name of the agency that supplied the example. Further explanatory notes may follow, also in italic, preceded by the word Note.
- 4.12 This standard is intended to be used in conjunction with ISAD(G) - General International Standard Archival Description, 2nd edition, ISAAR(CPF) – International Standard Archival Authority Records for Corporate Bodies, Persons and Families, 2nd edition, ISAAR(CPF), and with national archival descriptive standards. When these standards are used together within the context of an archival descriptive system or network, descriptions of archival institutions will be linked to descriptions of archives and to authority records, and vice versa. See Chapter 6 for guidance on how these links may be created.
- 4.13 This standard addresses only part of the conditions needed to support the exchange of information about archival institutions. Successful automated exchange of information about archival institutions over computer networks is dependent upon the adoption of a suitable communication format by the repositories involved in the exchange. This standard is intended to be used as the basis for a development of communication and/or data exchange formats, such as XML DTDs and/or schemas.

5. ELEMENTS OF DESCRIPTION

5.1 IDENTITY AREA

5.1.1 Identifier

Purpose:

To provide a unique code identifying the archival institution.

Rule:

Record a code identifying the archival institution in accordance with the relevant international and national standards.

Examples:

ARCHON Code: 182

United Kingdom, ARCHON Directory

Note: For the archival institution West Sussex Record Office

ES.08019.ACA

Spain

Note: For the archival institution Archivo de la Corona de Aragón

IT-ASMI

Italy

Note: For the archival institution Archivio di Stato di Milano

FR/ANOM

France

Note: For the archival institution Archives nationales d'outre-mer

5.1.2 Authorised form(s) of name

Purpose:

To create an authorised access point that uniquely identifies the archival institution.

Rule:

Record the standardised name of the archival institution, adding appropriate qualifiers (for instance dates, place, etc.), if necessary. Specify separately in the Rules and/or conventions element (5.6.3) which set of rules has been applied for this element.

Examples:

West Sussex Record Office

United Kingdom, ARCHON Directory

Archivo de la Corona de Aragón

Spain

Archivio di Stato di Milano

Italy

Archives nationales d'outre-mer
France

5.1.3 Parallel form(s) of name

Purpose:

To indicate the various forms in which the authorised form of name of an archival institution occurs in other languages or script form(s).

Rule:

Record the parallel form(s) of name of the archival institution in accordance with any relevant national or international conventions or rules applied by the agency that created the description, including any necessary sub elements and/or qualifiers required by those conventions or rules. Specify in the Rules and/or conventions element (5.6.3) which rules have been applied.

Examples:

Archifdy Morgannwg
United Kingdom, ARCHON Directory
Note: For the archival institution Glamorgan Record Office

Arxiu de la Corona d'Aragó
Spain
Note: For the archival institution Archivo Histórico Nacional

5.1.4 Other form(s) of name

Purpose:

To indicate any other name(s) for the archival institution not used elsewhere in the Identity Area.

Rule:

Record any other name(s) for the archival institution, such as acronyms, changes of name over time and their dates.

Examples:

Public Record Office
United Kingdom, ARCHON Directory
Note: For the archival institution The National Archives

Archivo Nacional
 Histórico Nacional
 Archivo General Nacional
 Archivo Histórico Nacional de Madrid
Spain
Note: For the archival institution Archivo Histórico Nacional

France

Note: For the archival institution Archives nationales d'outre-mer

5.1.5 Type

Purpose:

To specify the type of the archival institution.

Rule:

Define the category the archival institution belongs to.

Different criteria can be used for distinguishing the various categories of archival institutions, for example:

- ownership (public/private, ecclesiastical, university, etc.),
- lifecycle (definitive/intermediary, etc.),
- administrative areas (state/provincial/municipal, etc.).

Examples:

Business

United Kingdom, ARCHON Directory

Note: For the archival institution Bank of England Archive

Titularidad: Archivo Público de Titularidad Estatal

Gestión: Administración Autonómica/Territorial

Ciclo Vital: Archivo Histórico; Archivo Intermedio

France

Note: For the archival institution Archives nationales d'outre-mer

5.2 CONTACT AREA

5.2.1 Address(es)

Purpose:

To provide all the addresses of the archival institution.

Rule:

Record the location(s) of the archival institution (street, number, postal code, city, state, etc.). Indicate any other addresses which can be used to contact the archival institution (for example correspondence, administrative, etc.).

Examples:

Sherburne House
3 Orchard Street
Chichester

5.2.2 Telephone, fax, email

Purpose:

To provide the additional contact details of the archival institution.

Rule:

Record the telephone, fax, general email which can be used to contact the archival institution.

Examples:

Tel: 01243 753600

Fax: 01243 533959

5.2.3 Website

Purpose:

To provide the address of the website of the archival institution.

Rule:

Record the URL of the homepage of the archival institution.

Examples:

5.2.4 Officers in charge

Purpose:

To provide users with all the information needed to contact the officers in charge.

Rule:

Record the name and the contact details of the officers in charge (first name, surname, area of responsibility, email, etc.). This information should be consistent with the Administrative structure element (5.3.3).

5.3 DESCRIPTION AREA

5.3.1 Geographical and cultural context

Purpose:

To provide information about the geographical and cultural context of the archival institution.

Rule:

Identify the geographical area (for example using an online map) the archival institution belongs to. Record any other relevant information about the linguistic, cultural and historical context.

Examples:

West Sussex is a county in the south of England, which borders East Sussex (with Brighton and Hove), Hampshire and Surrey. The county of Sussex has been divided into East and West since the 12th century, and obtained separate county councils in 1888, but it remained a single ceremonial county until 1974 and the coming into force of the Local Government Act 1972. Also at this time the Mid Sussex region (including Haywards Heath, Burgess Hill and East Grinstead) was transferred from East Sussex. Local Government in West Sussex is provided by West Sussex County Council, with headquarters in Chichester, and the seven borough and district councils. In addition there are 161 town and parish councils.

5.3.2 History

Purpose:

To provide information about the history of the archival institution.

Rule:

Record any relevant information about the history of the archival institution. This element may include dates of establishment, information about the changes of names, the legislative mandates and any other sources of authority of the archival institution.

Examples:

Shropshire Archives is the archives and local studies service for the historic county of Shropshire, which includes the Borough of Telford and Wrekin. In 1995 the County Record Office and Local Studies Library were brought together in purpose built accommodation in the town centre. From 1995 to 2003, the building was known as the Shropshire Records and Research Centre. After consultation, in 2003 the name was changed to Shropshire Archives - gateway to the history of Shropshire and Telford.

En el último tercio del siglo XV, en plenas luchas de bandos nobiliarios, una de estas poderosas familias, los Almirantes de Castilla, construyeron un castillo en la histórica villa de Simancas, cercana a Valladolid. Los Reyes Católicos, consecuentes con su política de control de la nobleza, exigieron a los Enríquez la entrega de la fortaleza, que de esta forma pasó a manos de la corona. Es Carlos V quien, sofocado el movimiento comunero, afianzado el poder real y desarrollado el aparato administrativo de la monarquía ordena, el 16 de septiembre de 1540 guardar en uno de los cubos o torres, acondicionados para ello, un importante conjunto de documentos.

Pero la acción del emperador no pasó de recoger en el naciente archivo un pequeño conjunto de documentos dispersos por la Corona de Castilla. El verdadero ejecutor del Archivo de Simancas, plenamente consciente de la transcendencia y significado de su proyecto arcbívistico, es Felipe II, quien claramente percibe que la administración de un imperio debe descansar en el control de la escritura, único medio receptor de informaciones y emisor de órdenes. Para cumplir este objetivo construye un edificio y promulga un reglamento. En 1572 manda a Juan de Herrera que haga las trazas de lo que se convertiría en el primer edificio, construido para archivo, de la época moderna, y en 1588 firma una instrucción considerada el primer reglamento de archivos del mundo.

A partir de este momento el reciente Archivo de Simancas va recibiendo las periódicas remesas de documentos provenientes de los órganos centrales de la monarquía hispánica: los Consejos en la época de los Austrias (siglos XVI y XVII), y las Secretarías en la época de los Borbones (siglo XVIII), aunque con algunas excepciones. En 1785 se traslada a Sevilla el Consejo de Indias, a mediados del siguiente se lleva al Archivo de la Corona de Aragón el Consejo de Aragón y en los primeros años del siglo actual al Archivo Histórico Nacional el Consejo de Inquisición. La etapa de archivo al servicio de la administración finaliza en 1844 cuando, con la llegada del régimen liberal, Simancas se abre a la investigación histórica. A partir de dicha fecha pasa a ser Archivo Histórico. Esta andadura histórica, realmente excepcional, del Archivo de Simancas lo convierte en uno de los archivos más importantes para el estudio de la época moderna.

Con l'unificazione italiana fu scelta come sede dell'Archivio di Stato di Milano il palazzo del Senato (ex Collegio Elvetico), dove furono inizialmente traslocati i fondi presenti nell'Archivio governativo di San Fedele. Luigi Osio fu il primo "direttore generale degli archivi di Lombardia", dal 1851 al 1860, poi confermato direttore degli archivi governativi di Milano nel 1861. Il concentramento degli altri Archivi presenti in città nel palazzo del Senato fu progressivamente completato all'epoca della direzione di Cesare Cantù (1873 – 1895), nominato, con l'istituzione nel 1874 della Soprintendenza agli Archivi lombardi, Soprintendente generale. Il direttore Giovanni Vittani (1920-1938) guidò il trasferimento dei fondi dell'Archivio giudiziario nei locali dell'ex caserma di Sant'Eustorgio dove andò a costituire una sezione separata dell'Archivio di Stato di Milano. Tra il 1940 e il 1943 parte dell'Archivio fu trasferita in Brianza; il 13 agosto 1943 un bombardamento distrusse quasi integralmente il palazzo del Senato e con esso l'"archivietto" (archivio amministrativo dell'ASMI) e molti fondi che non erano stati portati in salvo. Il 15 agosto fu incenerita la sede di Sant'Eustorgio e, con essa, la sezione giudiziaria dell'ASMI. Dall'unificazione politica dell'Italia (1861) l'Archivio di Stato di Milano fa parte dell'Amministrazione statale periferica, alle dipendenze del Ministero dell'Interno fino al 1975 e poi del Ministero per i beni e le attività culturali.

Service délocalisé des Archives nationales, le Centre des archives d'outre-mer (CAOM) a été créé en 1966 pour conserver les archives de l'expansion coloniale française. Le CAOM est devenu depuis le 2 janvier 2007 le service « Archives nationales d'outre-mer ». Cette nouvelle dénomination est intervenue dans le cadre d'une réorganisation administrative érigéant les Archives nationales, jusqu'alors intégrées à la direction des Archives de France, en trois services à compétence nationale, organisés à la fois géographiquement et thématiquement.

5.3.3 Administrative structure

Purpose:

To describe and/or represent the current administrative structure of the archival institution.

Rule:

Describe the current administrative structure of the archival institution and/or represent it using organisation charts.

Examples:

The West Yorkshire Archive Service is funded by the five Metropolitan District Councils in West Yorkshire, and forms part of West Yorkshire Joint Services. The Service has its headquarters in Wakefield, and offices in Bradford, Calderdale (Halifax), Kirklees (Huddersfield), and Leeds. The Service also gives professional advice and support to the Yorkshire Archaeological Society, also in Leeds.

5.3.4 Collecting policies

Purpose:

To provide information about the collecting policies of the archival institution.

Rule:

Record information about the collecting policies of the archival institution. Define the scope and nature of material which the archival institution collects. Indicate whether the repository seeks to acquire archival materials by gift, purchase and/or loan, and record any exclusions. If the policy includes active survey and/or rescue work, this might be spelt out.

Examples:

Gloucestershire Archives delivers an archives and local history service for the county of Gloucestershire and an archive service for South Gloucestershire. It is recognised by The National Archives as the place of deposit for public records relating to these areas. It is also the appointed record office for the Diocese of Gloucester.

In order to carry out these roles, Gloucestershire Archives will seek to preserve archives relating to the areas administered by Gloucestershire County Council, South Gloucestershire Council and the Diocese of Gloucester and to acquire published sources relating to the history of Gloucestershire.

La Sección Nobleza del Archivo Histórico Nacional desarrolla una política activa de ingreso de nuevos fondos nobiliarios o familiares que ingresan en el archivo mediante comodato o depósito, permaneciendo la propiedad del archivo en manos de sus titulares privados.

También se producen ingresos mediante compraventa de fondos previa valoración, por donación, herencias o legados aceptados por el Estado. En éste caso los fondos documentales pasan a ser de titularidad pública.

También se realizan copias digitales de los fondos, permaneciendo el archivo físicamente en manos particulares pero se permite su difusión digital para la investigación, mediante subvenciones de Ayudas Archivísticas para entidades privadas sin ánimo de lucro concedidas por el Estado anualmente.

La plus grande partie des archives conservées aux Archives nationales d'outre-mer sont des archives publiques constituant des fonds clos. Ce service ne fait donc qu'exceptionnellement de la collecte d'archives publiques qui est du domaine de compétence du service Archives nationales (site de Fontainebleau).

Comme les autres services des Archives nationales françaises, les Archives nationales d'outre-mer peuvent prendre en charge des archives d'origine privée, qu'elles émanent de personnes physiques ou morales, d'entreprises, d'associations ou d'organisations professionnelles et ceci sous la forme de don, de legs, de dépôt ou de dation (loi du 3 janvier 1979, titre III) en vue de les mettre à la disposition des chercheurs.

5.3.5 Building(s)

Purpose:

To provide information about the building(s) of the archival institution.

Rule:

Record information on the building(s) of the archival institution (general and architectural characteristics of the building, storage areas and their capacity, etc). Provide information which can be used for generating statistics.

Examples:

The Surrey History Centre was opened in 1998 and was designed to provide the best possible conditions for preservation and public access, and to be a focus for promoting awareness and understanding of Surrey's history. The building was designed by WS Atkins Consultants Ltd.

The Surrey History Centre repository employs a very heavy structure which is insulated on the outside. This provides a 'ballast' against outdoor conditions, and reduces reliance upon the air conditioning system. The strong rooms have four-hour fire protection and an Argonite (inert gas) fire suppression system. The building incorporates a ventilated sunshade to protect the roof of the repository.

The building is long and relatively narrow. The public areas face onto a public road, the strong rooms are in the centre, and the document reception, cataloguing and conservation rooms are at the rear.

The Centre has a large conference room, which can be divided into two using an acoustic screen. It is fully equipped with the latest audio-visual and computer technology.

The search room is fitted with glass-fronted bookcases giving access to books, journals and pamphlets on all aspects of the history of Surrey. The main series of Ordnance Survey maps is also kept in this room. There is seating and table space for 24 researchers, including large tables for the consultation of maps. The room faces north, allowing researchers to enjoy good natural light without the glare and heat of direct sunlight. There are microform readers for another 30 researchers, and these are positioned on the side of the room furthest from the windows.

Los avatares del Archivo le han llevado a conocer cuatro sedes a lo largo de su historia; la primera, la que arranca con la Ley General del Notariado de 1869, estableció el Archivo el instituto de segunda enseñanza de Vitoria y Gasteiz, compartiendo instalaciones con la malograda Universidad Literaria y otras instituciones académicas y culturales del siglo XIX. Entre 1933 y 1942, compartió los avatares del Tribunal Tutelar de Menores de Vitoria, volviendo en 1942 al antiguo instituto en el Parque de la Florida, instituto que en 1978 pasó a ser la sede del Parlamento Vasco. Entre 1977 y 2004, el Archivo continuó en el mismo parque, pero en un edificio de construcción emblemática para la provincia de Álava, como es la Casa de Cultura, hoy denominada «Ignacio Aldecoa». El Archivo, como toda institución que vive de acuerdo a los tiempos, requirió de nuevos espacios, servicios y tecnologías que sólo podían proporcionarle la edificación de un edificio destinado únicamente para este propósito. Es su actual sede en el paseo de la Zumaquera. El nuevo edificio, que se inserta dentro del perímetro de la Universidad del País Vasco en la ciudad de Vitoria, fue diseñado por el estudio de arquitectura Francisco Ceña y Francisco de Gracia y el ingeniero Luís Casas, la obra fue realizada por la empresa Construcciones Paraño S. A., coordinada por el arquitecto técnico Alberto Fernández Rodríguez, bajo la supervisión del arquitecto del Ministerio de Educación, Cultura y Deporte José María Rosendo.

Il Palazzo del Senato, sede dell'Archivio di Stato di Milano, è situato nel centro cittadino a pochi minuti a piedi dal Duomo. L'Archivio si trova a ridosso del quartiere della moda (via Montenapoleone, via Sant'Andrea, via della Spiga).

Fu originariamente sede del Collegio Elvetico, fondato nel 1579 dall'arcivescovo Carlo Borromeo, per la formazione dei chierici provenienti dalle pievi milanesi soggette ai cantoni svizzeri. Il Collegio sorgeva in luogo del soppresso monastero delle umiliate di Santa Maria di Vigevano in Porta Nuova.

I lavori di adattamento e ricostruzione del fabbricato si protrassero dall'inizio del XVII secolo al terzo quarto del XVIII secolo. Dopo la chiusura del Collegio Elvetico e il trasferimento dei chierici nel 1786, l'edificio ebbe varie destinazioni d'uso (tra le quali fu sede del Senato del Regno d'Italia (1809-1814), organo da cui prese il nome con il quale è ancor oggi più noto). Dopo l'unificazione politica dell'Italia si venne affermando la destinazione del Palazzo del Senato a funzioni culturali e di studio. Dal 1886 l'Archivio di Stato di Milano divenne lo stabile ed esclusivo istituto ospitato nel Palazzo del Senato. Nell'agosto del 1943, durante i bombardamenti aerei su Milano, l'edificio subì ingenti danni sia nella struttura muraria sia per quanto riguarda la documentazione conservata.

Attualmente sono in corso lavori di rinnovamento della sede dell'Archivio di Stato per ampliare i depositi e per adeguare il palazzo alle recenti normative sulla sicurezza. Il 30 gennaio 2006 sono state inaugurate la nuova centrale tecnologica e 2 piccoli depositi sotterranei.

C'est en 1988 que le Conseil général de la Creuse racheta les anciens bureaux et entrepôts des Coopérateurs de la Creuse pour y installer les Archives départementales.

Conçues par Gérard Buffière et Gérard Peiter, les nouvelles archives, rue Franklin Roosevelt, présentent cette originalité d'associer une architecture résolument contemporaine, avec des plans intérieurs parfaitement fonctionnels, à la réhabilitation d'un site et de bâtiments d'entreprise datant de la première moitié du XX^e siècle.

El Archivo de la Real Chancillería de Valladolid conserva la documentación generada por la Real Audiencia y Chancillería de Valladolid (1371-1834), máxima instancia judicial de la Corona de Castilla durante el Antiguo Régimen para los territorios situados al norte del río Tajo, sin perjuicio de las competencias de la Sala de Justicia del Consejo de Castilla.

Asimismo, conserva los fondos producidos por la Audiencia Territorial de Valladolid (1834-1988), tribunal que sustituyó a la Chancillería tras su supresión, y por otros organismos judiciales aún vigentes, como la Audiencia Provincial de Valladolid, la Sala de lo Social del Tribunal Superior de Justicia de Castilla y León y los Juzgados de lo Social de Valladolid, que continúan enviando sus fondos al Archivo.

También se encuentran depositados en el Archivo los fondos de otros órganos con función judicial, como el Juzgado de Guerra de Valladolid (siglo XVIII).

Il nucleo originario dell'Archivio di Stato di Milano fu costituito dai fondi provenienti dai vari depositi presenti in città: San Fedele (Archivio camerale - archivio finanziario, Archivio governativo), dove i fondi furono smembrati e riorganizzati in serie "per materie" secondo il metodo "peroniano"; Archivio Diplomatico (raccolta delle pergamene tratte dagli archivi ecclesiastici); Archivio generale del Fondo di religione; Archivio giudiziario; Archivio finanziario (documentazione di carattere finanziario non versata nell'Archivio camerale). Nel corso del XVIII secolo furono create collezioni e sezioni speciali (Sezione storica), traendo documenti dagli antichi archivi. Molti fondi, tra cui la sezione finanziaria e l'archivio giudiziario, furono quasi interamente distrutti nel 1943 per eventi bellici. Dopo la guerra furono versati nel palazzo del Senato nuovi archivi di grossa consistenza, tra i quali l'Archivio notarile e l'Archivio catastale.

Il patrimonio complessivo conservato in Archivio di Stato di Milano occupa attualmente circa 40 Km lineari di scaffali, per un totale di oltre 180.000 unità archivistiche (tra buste, volumi e registri), 150.000 pergamene, fra le quali il più antico documento pergamaceo conservato negli Archivi di Stato italiani, del 12 maggio 721, noto come "Cartola de accepto mundio", oltre 76000 mappe.

La documentazione più antica, risalente al Medioevo, proviene dagli archivi degli enti ecclesiastici soppressi in particolar modo da Giuseppe II d'Asburgo e Napoleone tra il XVIII e XIX secolo. I principali nuclei documentari sono costituiti dagli Atti di governo, dall'Archivio Visconteo-Sforzesco; dalle Cancellerie dello Stato; dagli Archivi Napoleonici; dagli Archivi della Restaurazione; dagli Archivi Postunitari; dagli Archivi catastali; dall'Archivio notarile; dalle Miscellanee e raccolte della Sezione Storica; dagli Archivi della Sezione diplomatica e del Fondo di religione; dagli Archivi privati.

5.5.2 Reproduction services

Purpose:

To provide information about reproduction services.

Rule:

Record information about reproduction services available to the public (microfilms, photocopies, photographs, digitized copies). Specify general conditions and restrictions of the services.

Examples:

Hull University Archives provide a limited photocopying service for archives and special collections. Photocopies can be supplied if the original is in good condition and subject to copyright law, for individuals engaged in private study or research for a non-commercial purpose. Researchers should pick the most important documents for their research, rather than requesting entire files and sequences of documents for photocopying. Where items are too fragile or unwieldy for photocopying, digital photographs may be supplied instead; please consult staff for details.

Copies currently cost: 20p per A4 sheet and 30p per A3 sheet, plus postage and packing.

El Archivo proporciona a sus usuarios reproducciones de los documentos que soliciten, siempre que las condiciones de la documentación (estado de conservación, encuadernación, formato...) lo permitan.

Las reproducciones se solicitan por escrito mediante los formularios disponibles en la Sala de Consulta o por correo postal o electrónico.

La Sección de Reprografía del AGA, dentro del Departamento de Referencias, puede proporcionar reproducciones en los siguientes formatos:

Fotocopias DIN A4 y DIN A3, para la documentación sin encuadrinar.

Fotocopias de planos, para los planos no encuadrados, de anchura inferior a 870mm.

Fotocopia de fotogramas de microfilm (micropapel).

Microfilm blanco y negro 35mm.

Fotografía analógica en blanco y negro (papel) y color real (diapositiva).

Fotografía digital.

Imágenes digitalizadas.

El precio de las reproducciones están contemplados en la Orden ministerial de 20 de enero de 1995, por la que se regula la utilización de espacios de museos y otras instituciones culturales y por la que se establecen los precios públicos de determinados organismos autónomos del Ministerio de Cultura.

La reproducción de series documentales completas requiere una autorización especial de la Dirección General del Libro, Archivos y Bibliotecas, así como la firma de un Convenio.

Los documentos reproducidos que se deseen publicar en trabajos de investigación requieren la firma de un Convenio previo con el Ministerio de Cultura. Este requisito es necesario siempre que se quieran difundir copias de documentos del Archivo, ya sean filmaciones para televisión, ediciones comerciales o cualquier otra difusión pública.

6. RELATING ARCHIVAL INSTITUTIONS DESCRIPTIONS TO ARCHIVAL MATERIALS AND THEIR CREATORS

Archival institutions descriptions are created primarily to provide details on the custody of the archival materials and to give the information required to access the documents. To make this documentation more useful it is necessary to link the descriptions of archival institutions to descriptions of the archival materials. When such linkages are made it is important to describe the nature of the relationship between the archival institution and the linked archival materials. Authority records of the creators of records held by these archival institutions can be linked as well and used as an additional access point.

Links between archival institutions and archival materials can be made according to the classification schemes and/or other arrangement criteria applied by the archival institution to give a meaningful order to the fonds held. Usually, the classification schemes or arrangement criteria aim to represent State structure, sequence of political regimes and/or typology of archival materials and/or of their creators (governmental, private, business, etc.).

This Section provides guidance on how such linkages can be created in the context of an archival descriptive system.

6.1 Title and identifier of related archival material

Purpose:

To identify the related archival material and/or enable the linking of the archival institution description to a description of the related archival material, where such descriptions exist.

Rule:

Provide the title and the identifier for the related archival material.

6.2 Description of relationship

Purpose:

To define the relationship between the archival institution and the fonds or collection according to a classification scheme and/or arrangement criterion.

Rule:

Qualify the relationship between the archival institution and the fonds or collection, applying the classification scheme and/or the arrangement criterion adopted by the archival institution.

Describe the classification scheme and/or the arrangement criterion in the Rules and/or conventions element (5.6.3).

6.3 Dates of relationship

Purpose:

To provide the dates of the relationship between the archival institution and the related archival material.

Rule:

Record any relevant dates of the relationships between the archival institution and the related archival material.

6.4 Authorised form(s) of name and identifier of related authority record

Purpose:

To identify the related records creator and/or enable the linking of the archival institution description to a description of the related records creator, where such descriptions exist.

Rule:

Provide the authorised form(s) of name and the identifier of the authority record for the related records creator.

Examples:

APPENDIX: FULL EXAMPLES

Examples provided are illustrative and not prescriptive. They illuminate possible applications or renderings of the rules. Do not take the examples, or the form in which they are presented here as instructions. The rules in this Standard specify the data inputs into a description of a function/activity, not the output or presentation formats for that information, for which there are an infinite variety of possible approaches, all of which may be correct in accordance with the rules.

Please note that additional full examples of ISIAH-compliant descriptions can be found on the ICA/CBPS website at ...
