

Abstract: We discuss techniques for placing universal bounds on operator dimensions and OPE coefficients in Conformal Field Theories in any spacetime dimension. These techniques let us explore the space of CFTs, and in some cases they yield new information about known theories, such as the 3D Ising Model.