Is your Russian getting rusty? Want to improve your Russian fast?
Looking for ways to apply and improve your Russian language skills or your knowledge of Russian history, literature or culture?
Looking for ways to engage in community service?
Interested in alternative spring break opportunities in Russia?
Would like to get credit for your volunteer service or internship?

Regular (for credit) and occasional (not for credit) volunteer opportunities for everyone in the local Russian community, all levels of proficiency (incl. no Russian) are welcome.

Jobs include: friendly visitors, language partners, ESL tutors, computer tutors, citizenship exam tutors, K-12 Russian cultural presentations.

Sign up for 1-day activities: Russian card-signing, holiday gift deliveries, food distribution, accompanying seniors to concerts, translation.

Apply for our alternative spring break in Northern Russia (work in local museums and schools, start your own research project in Russia, explore St. Petersburg and Russian provinces). Student travel discounts and financial aid are available.

Receive academic credit and fulfill R&E/cognate requirements for your service if you sign up for RUSLAN 3-credit course (Slavic 316/RCLang 333);

Independent studies, internships and more.

Interested? Check out RUSLAN website for more information:
http://www.umich.edu/~resco/RUSLAN.html;
http://www.umich.edu/~resco/RUSLANASB.html (Alt. spring break), new volunteer survey https://lessons.ummu.umich.edu/2k/ruslan_student_survey/survey_001_01

Alina Makin, Project Coordinator:
resco@umich.edu; 647-4376