A powerful new feature-length documentary film on hate violence in the aftermath of 9/11

Valarie Kaur, a college student journeys across America in the aftermath of 9/11 uncovering stories of hate, violence, fear and unspeakable loss.

Screening followed by Q&A with filmmaker.

Sponsored by University Library

www.lib.umich.edu/mlk

Co-sponsored by:
Bentley Historical Library, Information Technology Central Services, Law Library, School of Information, University Housing

Monday, January 21, 2008
2:00-4:30
Michigan Union Ballroom