As part of EMU's Homecoming week festivities, McKenny Union and Campus Life will sponsor Maya Angelou at the Convocation Center. The performance will be Thursday, September 30 at 8 p.m.

Angelou, an author, poet, actress and Grammy Award-winning orator, is truly a national treasure. She is known for her bestselling books such as I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings and for creating and presenting "On the Pulse of Morning" for the ceremony installing William Clinton as the 42nd U.S. President. Angelou's distinctive voice and her passionate and inspiring messages about truth, courage and the human spirit have captivated audiences around the world.

Tickets are on sale now at the Convocation Center box office and Quirk Theatre. Prices are $5 to $10 for student with ID, $15-25 for the general public.
