VSM: Mapeo del Flujo de Valor. EVSM: Extendido para Cadena de Suministro

By

Rafael Carlos Cabrera Calva

Abstract

VSM: Value Stream Mapping. VSME: Extended for Supply Chain - Application to Manufacturing and Service Companies. This book provides specific information for the immediate application of the methodology of mapping the current value in both manufacturing companies and service industries. Additionally the book shows the corresponding extended mapping techniques to include up to tertiary (3° TIER) suppliers in various supply chains. It has a special approach to take to eliminate waste and continuous improvement in the health sector.

The objective of this book is that any organization can have the ability to use this tool to remove different types of waste and transform their traditional organization into an efficient system from the customer’s perspective. A customer could be a patient, guest, guest, customer or a student. The primary goal is customer satisfaction through the pursuit of quality, eliminating waste to make the company profitable today and in the future, based on the principles Lean Thinking.

About the author Rafael Carlos Cabrera Calva

Mr. Calva hold a Bachelor of Engineering, Diploma in Quality Process and an MBA. He has collaborated with companies in various management positions both as an executive and as a consultant. He has been involved in development of design, installation and construction of industrial plants. He has implemented Lean Manufacturing, Six Sigma and TOC fundamentals within Metalworking and Plastics industry.
For the complete book follow this link:

http://books.google.com/books?id=tzgAUptc4-cC&lpg=PP1&pg=PP1#v=onepage&q&f=false
References

Complete set of references could be found throughout the book.