Lovell Beach House by Rudolf Schindler
Taylor Mentzer

Project Location: Newport Beach, CA
Project Size: (Could not find)
Project Date: Designed in 1922, Built in 1926

Lovell Beach House, Newport Beach, 1922–26, section through living area (drawing by the author)

Lovell Beach House, Newport Beach, 1922–26, north elevation, proportional analysis (drawing by the author)

Lovell Beach House, Newport Beach, 1922–26, second story, proportional analysis (drawing by the author)
Beach house for P. M. Lovell, Newport Beach, 1925-26 plan — above; street front — below
Rudolf Schindler, born in Vienna, Austria, was a student of Frank Lloyd Wright and drew the first sketches of Lovell Beach House in 1922. The house was built in 1926. It is built raised above ground with a wooden frame with concrete on the outside. Most of his homes are in the Los Angeles area in California.